

RONDAYVOO

Hey Mom and Dad!

My Name is Graham Monteleone and I work for RealLife Church. At RealLife, we believe there is something almost magical about camp. For some reason, when we get teenagers out of this valley, out of their routines and away from social media they are able to learn more about themselves, more about God and how their story can line up with His story. This year we are going back to camp at Island Lake near Pouslbo, Wa. We will be leaving for camp on Friday, March 13th and returning Sunday the 15th. We'll take off at 12pm from the CHS parking lot and be returning around 6pm on Sunday. Manson students have conferences that day but if your child goes to Chelan they will need to leave school early.

The camp is full of awesome stuff for your kid to do including paintball, a ropes course, archery, motocross and a climbing wall. However, we think the best activities are providing a safe and fun place for your middle schooler to share their feelings, see what relationships look like without smart phones and connecting with caring adults who can help guide them in their journey. If you wanna know more about Island Lake you can see all the activities on their website at www.cristacamps.com. Now, let's talk nuts and bolts.

What's the cost? We are charging $150 for camp. A vast majority of this ($139) goes directly to the camp for food, lodging and programming. The other $11 goes to getting your kid over there. If you're looking at that price tag and saying, "There is no way I can afford that," we have some people who'd like to help. We are giving out half and full scholarships to those who need it. For a scholarship please get ahold of me directly (contact info below). Please remember that every half scholarship versus a full scholarship is another half scholarship we can give out to someone else.

So how do you get your kid signed up? We've tried to make it as easy as possible by including all the paperwork needed. Once the two documents included are handed back to me with payment (make checks out to RealLife Church), your kid is officially signed up for camp. A week from camp we will mail your kid a packing list letting them know what to bring... and not to bring. Also, if your kid is signed up by February 23rd, we'll give them a shirt to remember the weekend!

Thanks
